Winemaker's Notes

Our first vintage from our Petite Sirah block has proven what a good fit we have found for our site. Beautiful to look at, rich saturated crimson, with alluring aromas of cooked blueberry, dried cherry, allspice and earthy loam combine with fresh peppercorn and dried rose petal. Structured and compact in the mouth, this wine begs for decanting and a bit of time in the glass to fully open and express itself. Fine grain tannins support a well defined mid palate finishing with dark roasted coffee and bittersweet chocolate. This wine continues to evolve and will easily drink well in 15+ years.

Pairs well with hearty winter dishes, especially venison and game birds and mixed milk aged cheeses.
